IMPORTANT – Please Read Before Leaving Any Items

- No Call Policy: We do not call or email with updates. It is your responsibility to monitor your account. Your item status is available 24/7 on our website.
- Pricing: Your items will be visible on your online account within one week of drop-off. If you are unhappy with a price, you must contact the store promptly. Please note: prices follow our markdown schedule (see your green sheet). You may also submit pricing guidance through our website prior to drop-off. These options are provided to avoid any disappointment with final sale prices.
- Item Pickup (Unsold Items): If you would like unsold items returned, you must call the store within the 7-day grace period after your item's end date (visible in your account). After that items will be donated or become Montage property.
- Inactive Accounts: Accounts with no activity for 1 year or more will forfeit any remaining balance to the store.
- Damage or Loss: We take great care with your items; however, Montage is not responsible for loss or damage. If your items are not visible in your account within one week of drop-off, notify us immediately. We cannot be responsible for missing items after that time.
- Account Responsibility: You are responsible for:
    - Monitoring your account
    - Tracking sales and item status
    - Staying informed of policy updates
    - Notifying us of any changes to your contact information
- Markdowns: All items may be marked down at the discretion of Montage. Consignor Split (Per Drop-Off) 20 items or fewer: 40% Over 20 items: 30%
- Final Notes: Please do not be offended if we are unable to accept some items. We are proud to be the only consignment store that does not limit items based on brand, purchase date, or original price. Our only requirements: Items must be in season and must appear brand new (We do not clean, iron, or lint-roll items. Anything not in ready-to-sell condition will be returned.)
